DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, 10, 13, 16-32, 35-52, 55-82 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Buttner-Janz et al. ('296) (Janz).

Janz discloses a spinal implant comprising:

- A first part 1;
- A second part 2;
- And third part 3;
- The third part is curved and the 1st and 2nd parts form a socket to hold the third part;
- Teeth to engage the opposite vertebrae; and
- Wherein the 1st and 2nd parts have different configurations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3, 5, 6, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 33, 34, 53, and 54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Janz in view of Eisermann et al.

Art Unit: 3732

Janz uses teeth in a semicircular pattern. Eisermann teaches the use of a keel. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the teeth of Janz in a keel shape as taught by Eisermann in order to better secure the implant.

5. Claims 83-86 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Janz in view of Bryan et al.

Janz lacks the use of polyethers. Bryan teaches the use of polyethers. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide Janz with a polyester material since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Link et al., Buttner-Janz, and Marne et al. disclose relevant art to the instant application.
